

June 15, 2008 "Just Duct Tape and Jesus" - Rev. Sandi Rice

- Book of Matthew is a book of transformation
- God came to Earth in Jesus to understand what we go through
- Incarnational Theology
- If Jesus is "on the scene", something changes.
- Jesus went to the people, not vice versa.
- We should ask God what we should do.
- Sometimes we don't understand why something is happening, we may be broken-hearted, angry
- God is asking us to do what we need to do. It takes courage, determination, and sacrifice.
- We may have to go "outside the box" or our comfort zone or even be shaken to the core.
- Transfer the anger into an impetus to move forward.
- Pray to God and ask him to direct us to our calling.
- Duct tape – has a lot of uses – but it needs someone to use it – to implement its intended use.
- Jesus is our "spiritual duct tape."
- "Kick the darkness until it bleeds daylight." - Bruce Cockburn
